Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland, would like to thank you for your interest in supporting and caring for a Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland, horse. Please review the terms very carefully as it is our goal to make this a positive experience for you and the horse that will be under your care. If you have any questions, please contact us at (712) 527-3721 or through our e-mail address.

- 1) You agree to hold harmless Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc., its Directors, Board Members or Volunteers, including any affiliate thereof, from and against all liability, causes of action, suits, demands, judgments and claims of any nature whatsoever arising from, by reason of, or in connection with said horse.
- 2) You assume responsibility for the care of the horse you are fostering. You are responsible for providing food, water, shelter and basic medical care.
- 3) You agree to set up routine farrier visits for trimming and/or shoeing needs. You also agree to set up routine veterinarian appointments as needed for vaccinations, deworming, etc. unless Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc. makes arrangements to do routine vaccinations.
- 4) You agree to allow Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc. Owners, Board Members and volunteers to set up scheduled visits for evaluation and training of the horse. Liability waivers will be signed by all board members and volunteers before entering your property.
- 5) Any expense incurred while fostering a Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc. horse may be tax deductible when paid for by you. Please talk to your accountant for confirmation. Our tax identification number will be available upon request.
- 6) Any reimbursable expenses incurred while fostering a Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc. horse must be accompanied by detailed receipts. Copies will not be accepted.
- 7) In the case of an emergency, please contact only the Owners of Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc. to discuss what action is to be taken. If you feel that the horse's life is at stake, call a veterinarian first and then call the Owners of Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc.
- 8) If in an emergency you are unable to reach the Owners of Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc. we advise a veterinarian make the appropriate decisions. However, Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc. will not be responsible for any unapproved emergency expenses.
- 9) Before you call a veterinarian or a farrier for routine care, please contact Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc. to let us know that this will occur. We have veterinarians and farriers who we use on a regular basis. If at all possible, and if the situation is not an emergency, we want to utilize these providers. If you have a veterinarian or farrier that you generally use, you may wish to talk to him/her and tell them about Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc. and the foster horse that you are providing care for. More often than not, these professionals may be willing to discount or donate some of their services. You will never know unless you ask.
- 10) You agree to contact Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc. with any concerns and questions about the status of the foster horse.
- 11) If you are interested in adopting the horse that you have been fostering, you may have first option to do so. The adoption fee on each Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc. horse varies according to the age, background, ability, training, etc. As with any person who adopts an Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc. horse, you would pay an agreed upon adoption fee less a discount for your foster care.

12) You agree to work with Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc. in placing your foster horse into its approved permanent home. This will include, but may not be limited to, talking with perspective adopters, showing the horse to perspective adopters, etc.

13) If a situation arises in which your foster horse needs to be placed into a new foster home, please give Hooves & Paws Rescu of the Heartland,e, Inc. as much notice as possible. As we have several horses & large breed dogs in our care, we aren't always able to act immediately. Finding a new suitable foster home takes time.

14) Foster care applicants, must show proof of personal and or family medical insurance. Hooves & Paws Rescue, of the Heartland,Inc. is not liable for any injury to persons by foster/adoptive horse while equine is under care of foster/adoptive home.

15) Foster applicants must get verbal and/or written permission from the Owners of Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc. to use, ride, train, work, or transport foster horses in any way.

16) No foster horse shall be abused or neglected in any way while in the fosters care or it is agreed that legal action will be taken by Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc.

17) Hooves & Paws Rescue of the Heartland,, Inc. does not guarantee when adoption is possible of the horse in your care. Please keep this in mind. Becoming a foster home is a large responsibility and there are several cost involved with fostering. So when you enter into this agreement please be sure that this is understood.
